

Genesis 6–9 Questions

Genesis 6–9 covers “the generations of Noah,” a story of judgment and salvation. See also Ezekiel 14:14, 20; Matthew 24:37–38; Hebrews 11:7; 1 Peter 3:20; 2 Peter 2:5.

1. How do these chapters describe the scope of the flood? How should those details drive us to interpret the narrative?
2. What can we learn about faith from the multiple references to Noah’s obedience to God’s commands?
3. How is God’s judgment on display? What about his mercy? How does this episode in history point us to the gospel of Jesus Christ?
4. What is the significance of God’s covenant with Noah? What is similar and different from what God said to Adam and Eve?
5. What can we learn from the last episode of Noah’s life (9:18–29)?